THE BLAIR EDUCATIONAL BILI

May be Disposed of this Week-The Smelling" Committee About Ready to Report-Sherman's Trust Bill-Cabinet News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16 .- Ar If the motion to supersede it on the caldar by the forfeiture bill is successful the belief is that it will not again be heard of at this session of Congress. If the bill shall be further discussed under the present order, it will not occupy all the time of the Senate until a vote is reached on Thursday afternoon to the exclusion of other business, as but one or two more speeches are to be made on the measure, beside the summing up by Senator Biar, which is limited to one hour by the resolution of the Senate.

The subject of executive sessions will came up to-morrow for discussion under Mr. Call's notice to ask for the consideration of the Floriac judicial nominations in open session. Mr. Dolph's committee is expected to make a report of the results of its investigation of Chicago, but the New York and St.

The urgent deficiency bill will be called up to-morrow by Senator Hale and it will probably be disposed of without much discussion. Early in the week the majority and minority reports upon the case of the Montana Senators will be submitted, but it is the understanding that action on them will be postponed until the Blair bill is out of the way. Tuesday the Finance Committee will report the McKinley administrative castoms bill to the Senate and urge consideration thereof at the carliest practical date.

strongly pushed for first place as soon as the way is cleared by the execution of the present order on the Blair bill.

To-morrow being the third Monday in the month committees calling up the rules in the House will have the right of way, and if the Committee on Accounts is reached an earnest effort will be made to secure the adoption of the reso-lution granting clerks to all members of the House who are not chairmen of committees.

It is the present intention of the Committee on Elections to press the Maryland contested election case of Mudd against Compton to a canclusion during the week, and to follow that up with the Virginia case of Bowen against Buchanan.

The pension appropriation bill is ready for action, and will undoubtedly give rise to a spirited discussion upon the subject of general pension legislation. The direct tax bill is in a position where it can be called up any day, and members of the Ways and Means Committee express their confidence of being able to report the tariff bill before the close of the week.

Inter-State Commerce Decision.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—The Inter-State Commission yesterday, in an opinion by Commissioner Schoonmaker, decided the cases brought against the trunk lines by F. B. Thurber and others, trunk lines by F. B. Thurber and others, Thomas Greene and Francis B. Leggett & Company, of New York City, known as the "carload cases," in favor of the complainats. Complaint was made of too great differences in rates charged on carload and less than carload quantities. The cases excited widespread interest, and more than a hundred persons, firms corporations doing business in various sections of the country filed memorials with the Commission expressing their views for or against the relief sought for by the complainants.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16 .- The President and Mrs. Harrison on Tuesday evening April 8, will give a state dinner to the Justices of the Supreme Court arception in honor of the Army, Navy and Marine corps. A week later a reception to the public will be given. These entertainments are state affairs, which has become customary for the Chief Executive to give each winter before Lent. The bereavements of the families of Secretaries Blaine and Tracy caused their postponement until after Lent this year.

"You're'the man I have been looking for for two or three days." These were the words uttered by J. Stratton as he entered the butcher shop of W. W. Lewis, who was reading a newspaper. They were followed by several shots. The first bullet entered the breast and lodged in the lungs, and was sufficient to have caused death. Breeding and faint, Lewis groped his way to the door, and went to the back of his house. He was followed by the murderer, who continued firing. Finally, Lewis fell to the ground and died almost instantly. As soon as the news of the city authorities they arrested Stratton and placed him in sail to weight the sars of the city authorities they arrested Stratton and placed him in sail to weight the sars of the city authorities they arrested Stratton and placed him in sail to weight the sars of the city authorities. reached the cars of the city authorities they arrested Stratton and placed him in jail to await the arrival of the Coroner and Sheriff from Hastings. The story of the murder soon come to the knowledge of the citizens of the town, and in fifteen minutes a large crowd of determined and passionate men, armed and masked, forced their way to the cell where Lewis was confined, and paying no attention to his appeals for mercy, hastily placed a rope around his neck and draged him to a livery stable near by. Arriving there he was strung up to one of the rafters, and in a few minutes life was extinct. The lynchers then hastily dispersed. The Coroner arrived not long after and found the dead body of Stratton hanging to the rafter. It was cut down, and he rendered a verdict of "death by hanging at the hands of unknown parties."

The fire broke out in the store room on the first floor of the bla building from some unknown cause, morning Frank Groettner, a German, living in Allegheny City, killed his step-child, a little girl aged 10 years, with some sharp instrument, supposed to have been a hatchet. No cause for the murder is known. The crime was committed during the night, and the child's remains were discovered in her bedroom by her mother.

The room presented a most horrible sight. The furniture, ceiling and walls were bespattered with blood, and from tuffs of hair found on the walls it is thought Groettner took the child by the possible and gathered in the corridors. When they were all out the sisters led institution were slumbering, and raised the alarm, assuring the girls that there was no immediate danger. The inmates wrapped themselves up as hastily as possible and gathered in the corridors. More important than winning the seat or increasing the majority is the actual secession from the enemy's ranks of Mr. Caldwell, a Liberal Unionist member for one of the Glasgow divisions. This gentleman has been wavering for some time past and waiting for a decent pretext to return to the fold.

Such was afforded him on Thursday night, when the Government persisted in a proposal which, if carried out, will icripple the cause of free education in Scotland. Mr. Caldwell refused to surrenderthe principle of Liberalism threatened by the Government scheme, and forthwith withdrew from the Unionist party. The week has furnished additional proofs of confusion in the Tory ranks. A Debate at G. A. R. Hall.
A disgusting discussion of the subject,
"Is the God of the Bible the God of the Universe?" took place at G. A. R. hall last night. A. Allan Noe, a prominent member of the Secular Union and Spiritualist party, took the negative, and Capt.
E. A. Watkins, late of the Salvation Army, the affirmative. Mr. Noe's remarks were simply a tiresome tirade of blasphemy and biblical pervertion. Mr.
Watkins is a bright Welshman, and spoke in a quiet, foreible manner, with reverential regard for the Bible and its characters, and showed himself not only to be a thorough Bible student, but a man of extensive travel as well. Mr.
Watkins was formerly captain of the Salvationists at Steubenville, but resigned recently and located in Wheeling to allow himself and his wife, who is his co-worker, a few months rest. The "diccussion" was listened to by about fifty

A Bond Holder Wants Her Interest.

A Bond Holder Wants Her Interest.

The answer of Nancy Wallace has been filed in the Spaulding Iron Company case. She prays that the court may ascertain the amount due her on the interest coupons she holds, and that if the same be not paid within a short time to be fixed by the court, that the property covered by mortgage bonds be sold and the proceeds used to pay bonds held by her and others. She states that she owns 103 of the mortgage bonds, upon thirty of which five installments of semi-annual interest are past due and unpaid, each installment being $15, and upon the remainder of the bonds installments of interests ranging from three to one the miners' strike. It is the general opinion that the strike will not be of long duration, but if it lasts even a week it will cause the stoppage of scores of factories and throw thousands of hands out of employment.
